LEE'S MODESTY.

[Ben Hill's speech before the Georgia Branch of the Southern Historical Society.]

There were many peculiarities in the habits and character of Lee, which are but little known and which may be studied with profit. He studiously avoided giving opinions upon subjects which it had not been his calling or training to investigate; and sometimes, I thought he carried this great virtue too far. Neither the President, nor Congress, nor friends could get his views upon any public question not strictly military, and no man had as much quiet, unobtrusive contempt for what he called 'military statesmen and political generals.' Meeting him one day in the streets of Richmond, as I was going out, and he going in the executive office, I said to him, 'General, I wish you would give us your opinion as to the propriety of changing the seat of government, and going further South.'

'That is a political question, Mr. Hill, and you politicians must determine it. I shall endeavor to take care of the army you must make the laws and control the government.'

'Ah, General,' I said, 'but you will have to change that rule, and express political opinions; for, if we establish our independence, the people will make you Mr. Davis' successor.'

'Never, sir,' he replied with a firm dignity that belonged only to Lee. 'That, I will never permit. Whatever talents I may possess, (and they are but limited,) are military. I think the military and civil talents are distinct, if not different, and full duty in either sphere, is about as much as one man can qualify himself to perform. I shall not do the people the injustice to accept high civil office with whose questions it has not been my business to become familiar.'

'Well, but General,' I insisted, 'history does not sustain your view. Cæsar, and Frederick of Prussia and Bonaparte, were all great statesmen, as well as great generals.'

'And all great tyrants,' he promptly rejoined. 'I speak of the proper rule in republics, where, I think, we should have neither military statesmen, nor political generals.'

'But Washington was both, and yet not a tyrant,' I repeated.

And with a beautiful smile he said: 'Washington was an exception to all rules, and there was none like him.'

I could find no words to answer further, but instantly I in thought said: Surely Washington is no longer the exception, for one like him, if not even greater, is here.

''A right, old hoss, I'll be there,' said an Alabama boy, when sentenced to be hanged.

For the Recorder.

A FEW LINES ON FEMALE EDUCATION.

Articles on education are overlooked in a newspaper; they do not suit the reader, but I hope, that by the influence of foreign instructors and their systems, American parents will not neglect the physical education of their children. Imperfect children will become imperfect men and early death is the result. Why not commence to improve our little ones, who partly by our infirmities have to suffer, but by pleasant exercises can be brought to a more healthy condition?

What is done in this country, which is generally styled, 'The land of perfection?' What is done for the poor girls, who are sent to Boarding schools? I think parents and teachers are partly blind, considering the fact, that of twenty young women not one third is strong enough to nurse two children.

As it is a fact, that the state of health of young females has to undergo peculiar changes of the system, the more we have to complain and pity with all our heart, that in this country not more is done for the physical developement of women.

Life is motion; motion is power; power is health. This law is every where expressed in the universe. Perceive it in the smallest animal; the smallest plant and so the human beings, the first among the organic beings of the globe are also subject to this law. May these few lines be taken into consideration by Parents and Teachers.

FAT IN THE FAMILY.

When Chief Justice Marshall lived in Richmond, his opposite neighbor was Colonel Pickett. Colonel Pickett was a man of wealth, lived well, and was not content unless everything about his household bore the marks of good living. His horses were his pride, and were conspicuous everywhere for their splendid appearances, being as sleek, fat and high spirited as abundant food and excellent grooming could make them.

Judge Marshall's horses, on the other hand, were notoriously lean and unkempt. Everybody but the Judge had long remarked this. At last it was brought to his notice, with the suggestion that his carriage-driver neglected the horses, sold much of their food and appropriated the money to his own use, a good deal of it going no doubt, for liquor.

The Judge called him up without delay; 'Dick, what is the reason Colonel Pickett's horses are in such splendid condition, while mine are almost skeletons? I am afraid you neglect them, don't half curry them and don't half feed them.'

Dick, not expecting the attack, was not fairly posted. He hemmed and hawed a while till he could gather his negro wits about him, and then said:

'Mars John, look at you—is you fat?'

'No,' said the Judge—'decidedly not.'

'Well look at old miss,' (Mrs. Marshal,) 'is she fat?'

'No.'

'Den look at me—is I fat?'

'No.'

'Den look at yo' horses—is dey fat?'

'No.'

'Now den, you jes' look at Kunnle Picket—he fat, his ca'idge driver fat, his horses fat, his dogs fat—all fat. De troof is, Mars John, fat run in de Picket fam'ly and it don't run in our'n Dats all.'

'Well, said the Judge, after a little reflection, 'there is a good deal in that. It never occurred to me before.'

He turned back into his study, and Dick was never troubled any more.

Jews With Black Skins.—In the city Cotochin (Hindostan) and its neighborhood live nearly two thousand colored Jews. They are not quite so dark skinned as the Ethiopian negroes. They are Israelites in the full sense of the word, and faithfully worship the God of their ancestors. According to their own statement their origin is as follows: The conquest of a portion of the East Indies by Europeans opened to the commercial world the road to unlimited wealth, and the prospect of getting rich attracted adventurers from all parts of the world. Among these were many young Israelites from Bagdad, Bassora and Yemen, who came to seek their fortune. After establishing themselves they purchased female slaves from the natives, a number of whom married their masters after they were converted, and from these intermarriages the present population of Cotochin is descended. But on account of their color they are under a ban; neither the Israelites of Bagdad nor the white Jews of their own locality will intermarry or otherwise associate with them.

'Patrick, the widow Maloney tells me that you stole one of her finest pigs. Is it correct?' 'Yis, yer honor.' 'What have you done with it?' 'Killed it and ate it, yer honor.' 'Oh, Patrick, Patrick! When you are brought face to face with the widow and the pig, on the Great Judgment Day, what account will you be able to give of yourself when the widow accuses you of stealing?' 'Did you say the pig would be there, yer riverence?' 'To be sure I did.' 'Well, then, yer riverence, I'd say, Mrs. Maloney, there's yer pig.'

SEPARATION OF THE STATES.

A Remarkable Prophecy.

A friend has called our attention to a remarkable prophecy contained in the following extract from an old work, entitled 'Recollections, &c., of the Reign of George III, by a member of Parliament.' Whatever may be the force of the author's reasons, how near he came to the truth the past few years too sadly tell:

'These States form a Federative Republic. They have neither King, nor nobility, nor Established Church.—The English language and the English love of liberty, prevail throughout the whole confederacy. The facility with which landed property may be acquired and brought into cultivation, fixes in the inhabitants a disposition to migrate; a propensity which will much facilitate the extension of agriculture and the rapid population of the country.

On the sea-coast the active spirit of the people leads them to commerce and the fisheries; and when compelled to become a military State, they have shown the most courageous exertions. It is visible that they are capable of presenting themselves as a formidable naval power. Great Britain, France and Spain are the only naval powers of much consideration now in Europe; and even the most formidable of these—I mean Great Britain—would find it difficult to carry on a naval war with the United States of America. It is true Great Britain at present possesses on that continent one naval port and arsenal, viz: Halifax. If deprived of this, Great Britain would find it extremely difficult to carry on a naval warfare and British America could not long be defended, except at an expense which could not be borne.

The United States may not be considered as holding a high rank in the intercourse between themselves and the several States of Europe. The facility of acquiring landed property, naturally leads the people to apply themselves to agriculture, rather than to manufactures; and it is more for the interest of the Americans to bring land into cultivation, than to establish manufactures. The judicious conduct of the British Government has, in many places forced the Americans to establish manufactures; and machinery will be used with more advantage in a country where the population is thin, than it can be in a country like Great Britain, where the manufacturing population may be, perhaps, too great.

The application of the steam engine to the navigation of rivers, affords an advantage to America almost beyond calculation.

The inhabitants of the upper parts of her great rivers, will easily be supplied with everything that commerce can present.

'The United States will be divided. If the whole continent of North America formed but one State, it could only be controlled by a despotic government, but the happiness of man requires that governments should be free. One of the circumstances which at present contributes the most to the inhabitants of the United States, is that they have occasion for so little government. The facility with which subsistence can be acquired, removes the temptation to criminality. Whenever a division of the United States takes place, most probably it will not be in the first instance, a separation of the Northern from the Southern States; through this separation will most probably at one time or other take place. But the first division probably be, of the Western States from the Eastern. That immense plain which is watered by the Mississippi with her attendant streams, is naturally separated from the Eastern States by ranges of mountains, and the difference of soil, climate, produce and occupation will create that opposition of interest which leads to separation. But though this separation may be attended with blood-shed, it will ultimately be beneficial to the country.'

A GOOD TRUE STORY.

A story of the panic of 57' which has the merit of being strictly true, was recently told us by a gentleman familiar with facts in the case. The firm of Cannon & Brothers, wholesale merchants in New Albany, in this State, seeing that the panic was developing into a formidable monster, and fearing an entire break-up of their business, gathered themselves together in council to discuss the expediency of closing up their business until after the crash had passed over. To go on seemed utter destruction; bank notes were at a discount, and goods sunk immediately to ruinously low prices. Paper would be falling due that it would be impossible to meet if the business was discontinued, and yet it seemed quite as unlikely that it would be met if the house did not close. One member of the firm suggested that liberal advertising might float them through the troubled waters safely, and argued that the very dullness of the times would be the means of drawing special attention to their advertisement, if they were happily constructed. This argument won at last, and the other members of the firm gave their consent to make the trial. Accordingly a bargain was that evening made for one-half page of the next morning daily paper. The advertisement contained the information that bills on certain banks that were at a discount would be received by this firm at par. The result was magical. Money poured into the hands of Messrs. Cannon Brothers in such lavish quantities that the panic passed by on the other side, while their less discerning neighbors went to the wall by the dozens. They spent thousands of dollars in advertising throughout the entire 'hard times,' a proceeding which was not only very profitable to them, but an absolute benefit to the public. The junior partner of this firm still resides in New Albany, one of its wealthiest and most honored citizens. —Manufacturers' and Real Estate Gazette Indianapolis, Ind.

END OF THE TICHBORNE CASE—REVIEW OF THE TRIAL.

The trial of the claimant to the Tichborne estate in England, on charges of perjury committed during the trial for the possession of the estate, has been concluded with a verdict of guilty and a sentence to fourteen years of penal servitude. The trial has been a long one, having lasted one hundred and eighty days, and its result effectually extinguishes the pretensions of the claimant to the Tichborne estate. The case will live as one of the most celebrated in law records, and a popular interest will be long attached to the man himself, who has had the audacity to assume a title that did not belong to him in order to get possession of a vast property. Whether he be William Orton, the butcher, or some other person, it has been, it appears, well settled that he is not a Tichborne. The following is a resume of the extraordinary case:

Roger Tichborne, oldest son of Sir James Tichborne, after being educated in France and at Stonyhurst, and serving for a while in the army as an officer of carbineers, set sail for South America, in 1851, after which he was never seen again in England. His travels and his life ended or were supposed to have ended, when the ship Bella, on which he set sail at Rio de Janeiro for New York, foundered at sea. His mother refused to believe him dead, and advertised for him for several years. At last she was rewarded by hearing from Australia that her son was alive and well, and she got letters purporting to be from him, in which he stated that he had been picked up at sea and carried to Melbourne. In 1866 the would be Sir Roger, in the person of the claimant, reached England. Robert's father was dead; the claimant was recognized by Lady Tichborne as her son. In a year or two she died, before the case came to trial; meanwhile almost every other member of the family denied his identity. The suit instituted by him for the possession of the title and estate, commenced on the 10th of May, 1871, and continued, with little interruption, until July 7, when an adjournment for some months was had. The case was resumed in November, and the claimant's case completed on January 15, 1872. Sir John Duke Coleridge, then Attorney General, on that day began his opening address for the defence, occupying five weeks in its delivery. On March 4th the jury having just listened to the testimony of Lord Bellew, to the effect that he had tattooed the real Sir Roger when he was at school, and the claimant being unable to show any tattoo marks, were induced to state to the court that they had heard enough testimony. Two days afterwards the claimant's case was withdrawn from before the court. Lord Chief Justice Boville who had presided at the first trial, therefore issued a warrant for the arrest of the claimant on the charge of perjury, and his bail was fixed at £50,000, but he was soon bailed out by his enthusiastic partisans. On April 23, 1873, he was put on trial before Lord Chief Justice Cockburn, Mr. Hawkins conducting the prosecution, and Dr. Kenealy the defence. The testimony for the prosecution was closed on the 2nd of December last. The defence was then opened, and concluded on the 14th of January. The summing up for the prosecution was finished on January 28, and on the ensuing day Chief Justice Cockburn began the charge to the jury, which has proved almost as tedious as the speeches of counsel. The verdict of guilty was an unexpected one, for there were two men on the jury who were regarded with great suspicion. The two trials of the case have cost the government alone fully $2,500,000, the counsel receiving enormous fees, and witnesses being brought from Australia and this country at great expense. Altogether the case has been a marvelous one.

Patrons of Husbandry.—The Pacific Rural Press thus sums up the object of the Patrons of Husbandry:

1. The ennoblement of labor and the producing classes.
2. Bringing more closely together the producer and consumer.
3. Mutual instruction. The lightening of labor by diffusing a better knowledge of its aims.
4. Social culture.
5. Mutual relief in sickness and adversity.
6. Prevention of litigation.
7. Prevention of cruelty to animals.
8. The overthrow of the credit system.
9. Building up and fostering home industry.
10. Mutual protection to husbandmen against sharpers and monopolists.

SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS WANTED.

In December, 1872, the Grand Lodge of Masons ordered the opening of an Asylum, at Oxford, for the protection, training and education of indigent and promising orphans. Several weeks were occupied with preparations, and, in February, 1873, the work began. Some foresaw nothing but failure, and predicted that spontaneous donations would not sustain such an institution. Others determined that so far as its success depended on them, their whole duty should be performed. Lodges, Churches, Benevolent Societies, and liberal individuals have supported it by their voluntary contributions, and many helpless and homeless orphans have been placed where wholesome food, comfortable clothing, and faithful instruction will make them intelligent citizens. The laws of the land afford but little protection to orphans, and the hand of avarice often holds them in sad and shameful slavery. Legislators disregard their appeals. Orphans cannot vote, their fathers are all dead, and the rich seldom espouse the cause of their poor relations. Careful observation has shown that, by close economy, every orphan may be fed, clothed and taught, for five dollars a month. In order that different sections of the State may be represented, and that the most urgent and most needy applicants may be admitted, about two hundred orphans should be kept in the Asylum, their expenses will amount to twelve thousand dollars a year. To ensure the permanence of the institution and the continuance of its work, there ought to be some provision for its support for at least five years. If sixty Lodges, Churches, Benevolent Societies, or individuals, will each pay one hundred dollars every year for five years; if seventy Lodges, Churches, Benevolent Societies, or individuals will each pay fifty dollars a year for five years; and if one hundred Lodges, Churches, Benevolent Societies or individuals, will each pay twenty five dollars each for five years, the people will then appreciate the value of the work, and in some way make it permanent. Thus, for food, clothing, and instruction, twelve thousand dollars a year may be raised, and smaller contributions will supply furniture and fixtures. Will the friends of orphans raise this amount? The question is now before them.

Direct contributions are earnestly solicited. No countenance should be given to those who wish to grind their axes at the expense of the Orphans, neither should public attention be diverted by new schemes for raising money out of others. When people feel for Orphans, they should feel in their own pockets and contribute as the Lord has prospered them. Contributions for this year, and pledges for future years should be sent to the Superintendent, at Oxford.

Superintendent, Grand Master.

A SALT WATER TARTAR.

Hon. Rufus Choate, the great lawyer, rarely failed to show mental supremacy anywhere, and generally came off with flying colors from any play of wit with judge, lawyer or witness. But occasionally, when teasing a witness, he found his match and was silenced. Here is a case:

Choate, in an important assault and battery case at sea, had Dick Barton, chief mate of the clipper ship Challenge, on the stand, and badgered him so for an hour, that Dick got his salt water up and hauled by the wind to bring the keen Boston lawyer under his batteries.

At the beginning of his testimony, Dick had said that the night was dark and rainy. Suddenly Mr. Choate asked—

'Was there a moon that night?'

'Yes, sir.'

'Ah, yes! a moon—'

'Yes, a full moon.'

'Did you see it?'

'Not a mite.'

'Then how do you know there was a moon?'

'The Nautical Almanac said so, and I will believe that sooner than any lawyer in the world.'

'What was the principal luminary that night, sir?'

'Binnacle lamp aboard the Challenge.'

'Ah! you are growing sharp Mr Barton.'

'What in blazes have you been grinding me this hour for—to make me dull?'

'Be civil, sir! And now tell me what latitude and longitude you crossed the equator in?'

'Sho—your'e joking!'

'No, sir, I am in earnest, and I desire you to answer me.

'I shan't.'

'Ah! you refuse, do you?'

'Yes; I can't!'

'Indeed! You are the chief mate of a clipper ship, and you are unable to answer so simple a question.'

'Yes! 'tis the simplest question I ever had asked me. Why, I thought every fool of a lawyer knew there was no latitude at the equator.

That shot silenced the great lawyer.

WEDNESDAY.........MAR. 25, 1874.

THE BALD MOUNTAIN VOLCANO

Within the last few weeks reports of commotions among the mountains of McDowell county have been noised abroad, by the voice of rumor, and occasionally were noticed in some of the papers. It was hard to persuade the world that the causes of alarm existed, except in imagination or in the exaggeration of perhaps unusual noises. North Carolina in her physical features very much resembles the character ascribed to her people, quiet, equable, and placid, hard to rouse into excitement and reluctant to move from the even tenor of their way. Her mountains are generally smoothly rounded off by the plastic hand of Nature, teeming with vegetable wealth to their very summits, and giving not the slightest evidence of hidden forces beneath.

There is no sign of volcanic action in their formation, and they seem never to have been disturbed since that grand general convulsion which threw them into existence.

But now, Old Rip is shaking off his slumbers, and showing to the world that he can do something as well as other folks.

Bald Mountain is situated in McDowell county, not far from the Hickory Nut Gap, and at a point in the mountains where the South Mountains unite with the Blue Ridge. It is about 20 miles South East of Asheville.

Since February 14th, strange noises have been heard in the mountain accompanied with trembling of the earth. The noises are compared to the firing of cannon, or the roar of the thunder, and the concussions are sufficient to jar the houses, rattle crockery, and it is said, such is the motion of the earth, that trees are seen to rock to and fro at each detonation. The people in the neighborhood live in constant terror, religious revivals have been awakened, and in some instances families have abandoned their homes.

As yet there has been no display of volcanic action, except in the issue of steam from fissures in the rocks, and the unmistakeable presence of heat, evidenced by the immediate melting of snow when it falls on the mountain.

It is all wonderful and exciting, if the half that is told be true, and prepares the mind for the approach of some grand, startling and terrible phenomenon, here, at home, such as never have seen inflicted upon us, and from which geological arrangement had promised to spare this region.

Scientific men appear to have looked with indifference upon the matter, as if doubting that practice should be so inconsistent with theory. We hope they will throw off their incredulity and investigate the subject.

We are half tempted to run the risks of Empedocles to satisfy our curiosity in prying into the mystery.

CONGRESSIONAL ASPIRATIONS.

Mr. J. S. Amis of Granville, is spoken of as a probable Conservative Candidate for Congress in the Raleigh District. Ike Young Esq., is talked of as an opponent to Billy Smith in the same district, on the republican side, and Gen. Willis D. Jones has aspirations in the same direction.

☞ The news from Washington indicates that Grant is becoming somewhat dissatisfied with his cabinet. With his disregard to public opinion, he has always had about him men whom the popular sentiment has condemned, as unfit for their positions, and held on to them as long as they served his purpose. But the charm is broken. Old associations are breaking up. The jealousies of rivalship begin to show themselves. And the exposure of the villainies of the party have brought about recriminations which will destroy any friendship founded on a community of crime, and cemented only by the "cohesion of public plunder."

☞ It is thought that action will be taken within the coming week on the financial measures before Congress, and that a conclusion will speedily be reached. The business of the country is seriously affected by the delays and uncertainties of monetary affairs, and those of New York are clamorous for action. It is said that the expansionists are losing ground.

☞ The wretched stowaways who were found secreted on the steamship New York bound from Havana to New York some time ago, and who were returned by the cowardly captain to the Cuban authorities, have been garotted.

If that captain has a conscience, or if he can feel remorse for a deed instigated by timidity or interest, he will feel inclined to call upon the rocks to fall upon him, and the mountains to bury him, to hide him from the scorn and execrations of the world.

A VENERABLE RELIC.

The following letter has been handed to us, which we publish, not so much because of its really intrinsic value, but that it relates to parties whose descendants still flourish among us honored and distinguished. The letter written by Abner Nash, afterwards Governor, was written from his country seat near Newbern to the Hon. Sam Strudwick then living in the vicinity of Hillsboro—both names of household familiarity here through four generations.

The letter is endorsed "enclosing an old advertisement of Barrington lands." It is a little curious, this reference to a remote antiquity, in a letter itself so antique:

PEMBROKE, April 11th 1774.

SIR:

Having accidentally met with a piece of antiquity w'h, relates to your Hawfields Estate, I have determined to send it to you. I took it out of a Virginia Gazette printed in February 1739, fringed round the edges as you will see, by the considerate mice, who have kindly left the material part; if it should prove any service in fixing the exact bounds of y'r lands, I shall feel myself excessively happy in bringing to light this old fragment. I should have sent you the whole Gazette, but it serves to bind together a manuscript collection of the very first laws enacted in this province, w'ch I assure you is a very curious piece of antiquity. The gov'r has had a sight of it, as you may if you please when I return from Edenton.

I am respectfully and very sincerely
Sir
Y'r most obd't and devoted servant,
A. NASH.

To
The Hon'ble SAMUEL STRUDWICK esq.

☞ The National Republican ascribes the defeat of the Radical ticket in New Hampshire to the recent attack of Mr. Dawes upon the Republican party. Mr. Dawes has heretofore been a radical of the straitest sect, but with sincere convictions of the high mission of his party, and the purity of its purposes. He was too honest to follow it blindly through all its iniquities, or to sanction the perversion of the functions of government to party purposes. He is more loyal to his country than to his party.

Mr. Dawes does not stand alone, and it is quite apparent that the great radical party which ruled and legislated as if it had a lease on power through all time, is falling to pieces from its very rottenness.

☞ Hon. W. A. Smith has given the appointment of Cadet for his District to the Naval Academy at Annapolis to a son of the Hon. S. H. Rogers of Raleigh. This is a graceful act from a political opponent, and a generous forgetfulness of personal rivalries.

☞ It is now decided that there was no election by the people in New Hampshire; Weston falling short by about 600 votes. But there appears to be a Democratic majority on joint ballot in the Legislature of 15, and that secures the election of Weston.

☞ The contest for "Jason's Boots" in Massachusetts has waxed hot. Sumner's remains had scarcely been consigned to the grave, before the fury of rivalship broke out. Butler, Dawes, Adams, Hoar, and others pitched furiously into the melee. Massachusetts is somewhat sick of Butler just now. He is too strong for her stomach. Dawes will probably be the man. Whoever he is, he will be some one who inherits Sumner's hate of the South.

☞ The new postage law (says the New York Sun,) brings a considerable revenue from the New York advertising agencies. Geo. P. Rowell & Co's quarterly bills upon newspapers received exceed $480; those of S. M. Pettengill & Co. are above $350, while the agencies of W. J. Carlton, Bates & Locke, W. W. Sharpe and others most prominent, pay from one-fourth to one-eigth of the above amounts.

☞ The complaint is general, that Congress is the most indolent body that has ever sat in Washington, and that it is making no progress to relieve the financial troubles of the country. In the mean time, things are regulating themselves as best they may, for though business is crippled, the necessities of people will not permit it to stop altogether.

It is a discreditable and damaging state of things.

MARKETS.

The home Tobacco Market has been more active this week than last, with large sales, but no change of consequence in prices. The great trouble, which is a sufficiency of really good, still continues, and is not likely to be remedied, last years crop furnishing an unusual proportion of common.

There are some slight changes in the Richmond Market, and we give quotations of the 19th.

PERRY DAVIS'

PAIN-KILLER,

HAS been tested in every variety of climate and by almost every nation known to Americans. It is the constant companion and inestimable friend of the missionary and the traveler, on sea or land, and no one should travel on our Lakes or Rivers without it.

Since the PAIN KILLER was first introduced and met with such extensive sale, many Liniments, Relief, Panaceas, and other Remedies have been offered to the public, but not one of them has ever attained the truly enviable standing of the PAIN KILLER.

WHY IS THIS SO?

It is because DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is what it claims to be a Reliever of Pain.

Its Merits are Unsurpassed.

If you are suffering from INTERNAL PAIN, Twenty to Thirty Drops in a little Water will almost instantly cure you. There is nothing to equal it for

In sections of the country where prevails, there is no remedy held in greater esteem. Persons traveling should keep it by them. A few drops in water, will prevent sickness or bowel troubles from change of water.

From Foreign countries the calls for Pain Killer are great. It is found to Cure Cholera when all other Remedies Fail.

When used Externally as a Liniment, nothing gives quicker ease in Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Stings from Insects, and Scalds. It removes the fire, and the wound heals like ordinary sores. Those suffering with RHEUMATISM, GOUT, or NEURALGIA, if not a positive cure, they find the PAIN-KILLER gives them relief when no other remedy will.

It gives instant relief from Aching Teeth.

Every House-Keeper should keep it at hand, and apply it on the first attack of any Pain. It will give satisfactory relief, and save suffering.

Do not trifle with yourself by testing untried remedies. Be sure you call for and get the genuine PAIN KILLER, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable Medicine.

Price 25c., 50c., and $1 per Bottle.

The Hon. W. A. Graham has in his possession a ring upon the inner surface of which are engraved the names of the illustrious trio, Clay, Calhoun, and Webster. The ring is the gift and the work of the venerable William Huntington, a former resident of this place, now living in Marion Ala. at an advanced age, but in good health. The remarkable feature is that Mr. H. made the ring and executed the engraving at the age of eighty one years.

We are glad to learn that the journal of Col. Fanning is about to be issued in permanent form. It was republished in the Sentinel last summer, but that was in too perishable a shape to give it value as a work for reference. Our former employee Tom Turner, has undertaken the work, and we wish him abundant success in so praiseworthy, and really important undertaking.

St. Nicholas for April is on our table. We cannot too often recommend this beautiful work to the attention of parents, as one of the best guides in literary and artistic taste, and in a pure literary and moral culture that we we know of. $3.00 per year. Address Scribner & Co New York.

Demorest for April is to hand. As the season of Spring approaches when nature decorates herself with the bright colors and gay apparel appropriate to the time, Demorest, not to be outdone, comes forward with tasteful emulation, and runs dame nature herself a close race in the contest for rivalry. No doubt the ladies will [illegible] ed with the charming array of colors, and the graceful [illegible] spring plumage as [illegible] plates and illustrations.

In the attempt to [illegible] William's orthography, we may confuse our own, and therefore decline the task.

☞ It is to be hoped that the Torch-Light has found out by this time, that it is Fanning's Journal, not his own, that Tom Turner is about to have put to press. It is a rich idea that of Mr. Spencer finding material for a biography in the life of our former [illegible] Col. Mosely.

The organization is flourishing in this county, and there are six or seven Granges in operation.

[illegible] fields [illegible] the 6th of [illegible] 46th year. He left the home of his birth, in which he was never afterwards to be a permanent resident, in order to begin the contest with the world on his own behalf. After a few months stay in Raleigh, where he learned the practical operations of the telegraph, he was transferred to Petersburg, and became thenceforward a permanent resident of that city. In all the capacities in which his energies and his integrity were tried, he exhibited the highest traits of manhood, and won for himself not only the respect but the confidence and love of the whole community. The popularity of his manners made him known to every one, and though frank, impulsive, and outspoken, such was his admirable balance of character, that he made no enemy. Identifying himself thoroughly with the city of his adoption, he united himself with its various societies, and became a prominent officer of one of its oldest military organizations. At the beginning of the war he was first Lieutenant of the A. City Guards, and in that company of which he soon after took command, he went through the whole four years of the war, participated in many of the greatest battles, and returned as Captain at its close without having received a wound, but with health much shattered, and a constitution readily accessible to such attacks as finally ended his life.

For some years after the war, he acted as agent of the South Side R. R. Co., but for the last two or three years has been Agent for the Great Southern Despatch line, in which capacity he has rendered valuable service to the Company, while by his business capacity, the geniality of his temper, and the exhibition of the sterling qualities of manhood, he made many friends, who will be prompt to respond to the grief which has overwhelmed his own immediate family.

Capt. Waddell was married in 1858 to Miss Fanny, daughter of Peter L. Mesurier of Petersburg. He leaves no children. His remains were taken to Petersburg for interment.

Bingham's Text Books.

Maj. Bingham informs us that the text books of his brother, the late Col. William Bingham, are extensively used in the West, and North West, and to some extent at the North, and that the widow of Col. B. has quite a handsome revenue from her interest in the copy rights.

We have yet to learn, that outside of the Bingham School, any of these books have found favor in North Carolina, while it is undeniable that the Latin Grammar has stood the test of the severest criticism from the highest authority, and been pronounced of superior merit, while his editions of the classics are superior to those of Anthon, so much in vogue years ago.

Oh for a little more State pride!

THE AMERICAN FARMER FOR MARCH is received with a great variety of articles of the most practical value. No branch of culture but has full space accorded it. Field Crops, Orchard Products, Small Fruits, the Dairy and Live Stock suited for it, the Poultry Yard, the Vegetable Garden, the Lawn, the Flower Garden and the Green House each have a department well filled and by the ablest hands. There is besides, much miscellaneous matter in which every member of the family circle will find something interesting and instructive. The National Platform of the Granges is also given in this number.

We risk nothing in recommending the Farmer to our farmer friends as a reliable and advanced paper, devoted to their interests. We believe not one of them but would be benefitted by its companionship for a year.

Published by SAM'L SANDS & SON. No. 9 North St., Baltimore, Md., at $1.50 a year, or at $1. to clubs of five or more. Liberal premiums for clubs. Specimen numbers sent free.

SOUTHERN MUSICAL JOURNAL.

In the March number of this valuable monthly we find the following musical gems, viz: "Am I Dreaming." Songs quartette, by S. K. Whiting, one of our best song-writers; "Black Key Polka Mazurka by Herzog; "How the Gates came ajar," transcription of Eastburn's beautiful melody, easily arranged by E. Mack, just the thing for little fingers, and "Schubert's Serenade," adapted for players of moderate ability's. Here are eight pages of really good music at the trifling cost of eight and one quarter cents, and besides there is a large amount of reading matter, music reviews book notices, etc. All together the JOURNAL is well worth the attention and patronage of musicians everywhere, and we most heartily commend it to our readers.

In order to bring it rapidly into general circulation, its publishers are given subscribers a choice of four premiums. Specimen [illegible] with full particulars will be mailed free to any address. Subscription price $1.00 per year. Address

WILMINGTON.

Our Wilmington Correspondence.

WILMINGTON, March 21st 1874.

Dear Recorder:—The spirit of the age—that of progress—is still rife in our midst. We continue to be agitated here on our rail-road and cotton factory question, and the probabilities now are that we will carry through all the schemes that have been agitated by us of late. These are, an extension of the line of street-railways south of Market street, the rail-road to the Sound, and a cotton Factory.

The JOURNAL of this morning date announces that there are $21,000 subscriptions already made for the Sound road project, and that $23,000 of the amount necessary to build a cotton factory have been obtained. It will require something like $35,000 to build and equip the road to the sea side, and of this amount, it is very probable that at the election to be held next week, the citizens of Wilmington will vote a subscription of $10,000 in behalf of the city. This as you perceive, will very nearly complete the entire amount required. There is no doubt of the success of the road when completed. Our country friends in every direction are sending down to us good words of cheer, and earnestly hoping that we may be able to build it. They say they will swarm down to our city next summer, if we will only give them an opportunity of running down to the seashore.

Besides, in case it is built, there will probably be very little running off to Northern watering places in the summer season. We will have a watering place of our own, located at our very doors, to which husbands and fathers may retreat at night, relieved and invigorated for the labors of city life, while their families are disporting themselves on the shores of the broad Atlantic, only eight or nine miles from the business centre of the city. This would make a beautiful picture, properly painted, and we want you to come down here early in the summer yourself, and furnish some of the tints, as well as assume a prominent position in the foreground of the picture.

A few days more will decide the fate of the rail-road to the sound.

As for our cotton mill, as yet a veritable chateau d'espagne, we have earnest hopes of its success.

Recently it was all but "give up," as the subscription books showed only $40,000 in stock subscription, which at least $125,000 was required to inaugurate the movement. But some of the gentlemen who had originally taken the matter in hand, and who are from among our most prominent capitalists, determined that the scheme should not die, and therefore they exerted themselves anew.

They have $80,000 subscribed with favorable indications of being able to raise the full amount required within the next two weeks.

Dont you think that our little city, depressed as she is from the effect of the recent panic, is showing more zeal, more enterprise, and more indomitable will and courage than any other of its size and population in the United States?

Yours,
CAPE FEAR.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

STRONG AND PURE RICH BLOOD—INCREASE OF FLESH AND WEIGHT—CLEAR SKIN AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION SECURED TO ALL.

DR. RADWAY'S

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES; SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the blood, sweat, urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, mouth, tumors, nodes in the glands and other parts of the system, sore eyes, strumous discharges from the ears, and the worst forms of skin diseases, eruptions, fever sores, scald head, ring worm, salt rheum, erysipelas, acne, black spots, worms in the flesh, tumors, cancers in the womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, night sweats, loss of sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of modern chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,

Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

Tumor of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Radway's Resolvent.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL — DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free.
